MR. EDMUND FREY

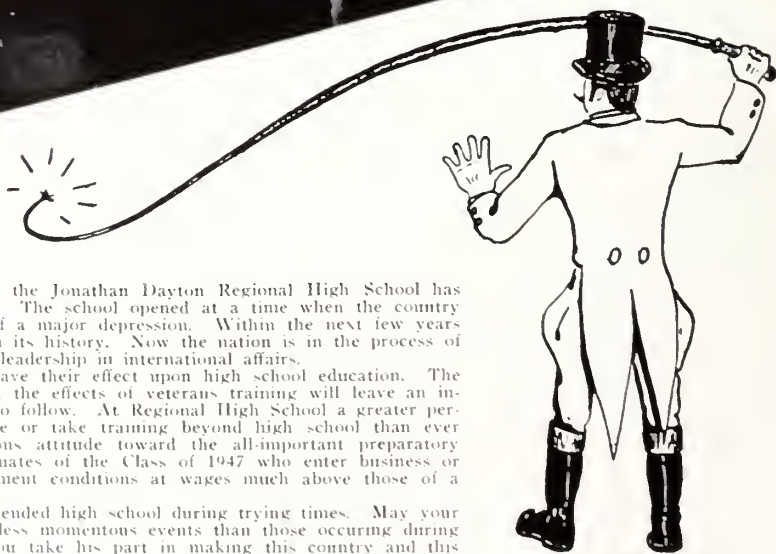

DEDICATION

Behind every show, whether small or big time, there is someone to whom you can tell your troubles, someone that can give a little comfort, a little encouragement, perhaps solve a perplexing problem or lighten your day and in general start things rolling your way again. We have our special someone in Mr. Frey, our building superintendent. Without him the show at Regional would lack that kindly touch which adds warmth and good feeling to the performance.

Of course those not under the big top could hardly know of this central forceful personality. Sometimes even those on the inside are unaware of the place he fills in our big parade, yet his presence is felt by all and is a tradition in our show world.

Few of the troupers are aware of his persistent fight in founding our Regional High School, which was the first in the state; of his place on the original board of education; and thus his universal interest in all phases of the school, its personnel and its student body. He is closely allied with its success and its future. How well he fits the niche of "our special showman", under the Big Top!

During the ten years of its existence the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School has lived through many events of major import. The school opened at a time when the country was beginning to emerge from the effects of a major depression. Within the next few years the United States fought the greatest war in its history. Now the nation is in the process of post war recovery and is taking its place of leadership in international affairs.

Events of this magnitude inevitably have their effect upon high school education. The nation is entering upon a new era in which the effects of veterans training will leave an indelible mark upon the education of those who follow. At Regional High School a greater percentage of students expect to attend college or take training beyond high school than ever before. Students have shown a more serious attitude toward the all-important preparatory training provided by the high school. Graduates of the Class of 1947 who enter business or industry may look forward to good employment conditions at wages much above those of a few years ago.

Members of the Class of 1947 have attended high school during trying times. May your future progress through life be attended by less momentous events than those occurring during your high school years and may each of you take his part in making this country and this world a better place in which to live.

VETERANS CLUB

We have at Regional some of the men who have marched in the biggest parade of all times; the veterans. Before coming to the Big Top, they received top billing in the European and Pacific theaters of war.

The veterans at Regional have expressed a keen interest in full or part-time education after graduating from high school. In view of this, considerable time has been spent in discussing the provisions and interpretation of the educational benefits as provided in the G. I. Bill of Rights.

In all school activities they have been active participants and we appreciate their cooperation in our life under the Big Top.

THE BIG PARADE

The show must go on. Like all shows, even circus people need a Health Department. At the start of the circus year, all performers are given a general health examination by Doctor Irving Kimche, head physician of the Big Top, who replaced Dr. Watson B. Morris.

While the circus is on the road, the health of the performers is supervised by Mrs. Ruth Montgomery, head nurse. Some of the jobs accomplished by Mrs. Montgomery during the year are the checking of heights and weights of the performers. After this, Patch Tests and X-rays are given to the performers to be sure that none of them have tuberculosis. Good vision and hearing are also essential in the show business, and Mrs. Montgomery sees to it that all people connected with the circus get a Snellen Eye Test and hearing test. During the year dental examinations are given by Dr. Jack B. Wasserman as part of the physical fitness program.

When some of the entertainers fall down on the job and become victims of such illnesses as headaches and nausea, Mrs. Montgomery rushes on to the scene with her ever-faithful "bicarb". The performers soon learn to take better care of themselves so that this show will go on and the Big Top can operate in full swing.

CAFETERIA

Circus performers play hard and work hard. In order to keep up the standards of the performance that inner man must be fed. This is a colossal task performed admirably by Director Maitland, with assistance of her keepers and the modern equipment.

Over the tasty and wholesome dishes, problems are discussed, friendships are cemented, confidences are exchanged and plans for bigger and better activities are in the making.

On special holidays and birthdays the trouper, often relax and one finds evidence of the kindness and thoughtfulness which make a busy life worth living. A little Xmas tree, a birthday cake, a gift or two exchanged and from the various recesses of the big room the strains of "Happy Birthday" ring out —1-2-3 WOW!!

When do I go on?
What place in the show will I hold for next season?
What part of the act am I going to train for?
What are my seniority rights?
How far have I advanced and what will be my next step?
Troupers after Troupers file in to the little office where Director of Guidance, Carol Kraft, and the trainers answer their questions, solve their problems, set them on the right track and groom them for their places as Headliners.

Miss Alice Lyman (counselor)

LIBRARY

Even seasoned headliners under the Big Top feel the need for quiet relaxation spent with good books. To insure their enjoyment, the Library Council, under the direction of Miss Dimmers, functions expertly under the Big Tent. Checking in and out books, preparing new books for shelves, collecting fines, mounting pictures, starting specialized collections and files are routine to the Council and its club members. The troupers soon learn library behavior under their tutelage. (Volunteering their time for at least two periods a week) helps to set the correct atmosphere surrounding all show people.

Strike Up the Band! The big parade of yearly events is on and at the head boosting our morale, setting the tempo of our enthusiasm, is our band. Stately Joan Reasor, our drum majorette and the four snappy twirlers set a pace for the rest to follow. With a blare of brass and a roll of drums we're off!

Hoist up the flag, here come the parade. In the lead with colors flying come the Regional band led by our snappy drum majorette and four peppy twirlers.

From the first football game to the last chord of the senior graduation march, our band is a vital part of our school life. It participates in almost every school activity starting off the year with pep rallies and football games and continuing with assemblies, P.T.A., Concerts, Memorial Day parade and graduation.

Mr. David Russette, the Band Master, is a real trouper and is the guiding spirit behind this very important part of our show.

Here under the big top there is a great deal of opportunity to learn and appreciate music—vocal and instrumental. The two main programs given by the music groups are the Christmas Concert given December 19 and the Spring Concert given May 9th. Although the Ensemble gave a special performance for the P.T.A. in January. The Choir sang at all the "All State Choral Festival" given at the Trenton State Teachers College on May 17th. Besides the satisfaction of performing well, there is a great deal of enjoyment in belonging to a music group.

STUDENT COUNCIL (Circus Managers)

Great respect is due all Council members for they represent us, the troupers, under the Big Tent. Democracy is the keynote of the function of this group of Tent leaders, headed by John Bunnell.

They are not only always ready to answer the troupers call of "Hey Rube" but they actively sponsor some of our most worthwhile charities.

Circus folk are notably generous and cooperation is evidenced by their response to the drives for dues cards, P.T.A. membership (350 Memberships added) March of Dimes, U. S. O. and Fort Dix Christmas packages for the service men, as well as the sponsorship of a $50 scholarship to a worthy retiring headliner.

The Hallowe'en Jamboree and the May Pole dance under the direction of this group, are two of our featured acts

Great credit is due those of our troupers who have made "top billing"—that is, who have been high enough in rating to have been selected for a membership in the Honor Society which is a National organization. The total membership in this society outnumbers any previous year.

Efforts have been made to increase scholarships for the further training of our troupers as well as a great deal of relief work—clothing drives and the sale of bonds and stamps during the war years.

This group set a high standard which we hope to see many more of our troupers reach.

Although we troupers and headliners live for a good time, we realize the need for order and restrictions. Our circus guards (The Hall Patrol of Regional High School, to you) use the heavy-hand "to keep order in the tents and to allow only ticketholders to pass their assigned gate. The Chief guard, Mr. McGrew, and his able captains, John Hansen and Frank Moroli, are among seventy-five members who officially keep us in line under the Big Top. They, too, can relax and unbend at their annual outing before retiring from active duty.

These four years, first as troupers and then as headliners, have been wonderful years, years never to be forgotten. Our voluntary staff, whose duty it was to keep these years ever memorable, in print, and by pictures and drawings, met every known obstacle.

Last minute shift in theme, picture schedule headaches, lay-out problems, big pressure sales campaigns, intricate art work all faced our crew but were met undauntlessly by all departments.

Our trainers, Miss Kelly, Miss Johnson and Mr. Werner, ably assisted by Doris Powers, literary editor; Elmore Martin, Art editor and Harry Keene, business editor, proved that true show people know how to work together successfully.

With the largest class ever to graduate from the Big Top, the staff was faced with the biggest problem of all — retaining all essential memories in print and still making room for its large graduating troupe.

Since the yearbook is essentially for the out-going headliners, each Senior felt responsibility to this staff, and in some small way, added his contribution to the finished work. We, the staff of the Regionalogue, wish to express our thanks to all who contributed — trainers, editors, and Seniors alike.

The Agriculture boys of Regional have gone all-out in their activities true to the traditions of years gone-by. Our present young farmers have kept active this year with class projects, contests and their annual F.F.A. activities.

All the "Ag" buildings at Regional have been given a new lease on life in the form of two coats of shiny white paint. The Junior and Senior Class did the work in real professional style during the early months of school. The Sophomores were not idle during this time either. They repaired and converted the rear section of the field house for use as a new farm shop. Nor were our freshman asleep at the switch. They built a dry, elevated path of cinders, from our school to the new farm shop, approximately one-fourth mile long.

It's a common echo around Regional now, the "Ag" boys brought home the bacon again, or, we should say "The apples". Yes, the apple packing team, "Skip" Stiles and "Don" Springle, did it again. They have won the fourth state championship for apple packing in the eight years of competition for Regional "Aggies".

The Yuletide spirit was in the hearts of our future Farmers again this year. They showed this by repairing and making 125 toys which they distributed to the needy children at Regional's six communities. Their project was high-lighted by their cheerful "Merry Christmas" radio broadcast early Christmas morning over WJZ.

When spring rolls around what do you think of? The beautiful flowers blooming? The birds singing in the tree tops? Or maybe someone's beautiful blue eyes? The "Aggies" have but one thought in mind: to care for their three hundred "Fluffy charges," or "Chicks" that is, which are out in the FFA brooder house.

Our three organizations outside the Circus Ring are the Booster Club, the P. T. A. and the Teachers Association, all backing the troopers in their specific feature at traction.

The Boosters, whose prominent interest is centered in the Acrobatic ring, are the loyal patrons behind our successful season with the acrobats under our Big Top. With their blue and gold badges strongly displayed at our acrobatic meets, the Boosters are highlighted in our billboard of special attractions at the Regional circus.

The P. T. A., whose attention is centered on all phases of the troopers and trainers, serve as a much needed backer for unity among the circus people and its interested audience. Coming to bat financially for a trooper, helping to further a headliner in his career outside the Regional tent, and, in general taking a wholehearted interest in the troopers' needs and progress, the P. T. A. at Regional deserves our merit of special awards.

The Teachers Association, headed by Walter Hohn, has a two fold purpose, that of furthering the progress and solving the problems of the troopers and caring for the needs of its own members.

Indirectly, it is the trainer's social link under the Big Top, highlighted by picnics and dinners, with the trainers showing the troopers that their skill at acrobatics is still tops on the baseball diamond.

SIDESHOWS

The big social event looked forward to each year by the members of the big top is, of course, the Junior Prom. On this evening, the Juniors entertain the Seniors in a gala affair. The big top changes its usual setting on this night to one of a more formal mood. The music is supplied by a well-known orchestra, and refreshments are served. The entire circus cooperates to make this affair a big success.

JUNIOR PROM

"Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow!"

Our winter headquarters was turned into a winter wonderland at the time of our annual "Snow-Ball Carnival", sponsored by the Sophomore Troupers.

The Queen with her ermine robe and her attendants groomed in white, all had snow-ball bouquets, as they entered our elaborately decorated gymnasium.

MID-WINTER CARNIVAL

MAY QUEEN and Attendants

MAY POLE DANCE

Rating high among the special attractions of the circus folks, is well-known "May Pole Dance," sponsored by our reliable Student Council.

The main highlighted attraction of the evening is the crowning of the May Queen, whom the troupers have chosen. This year Dolores Jones was crowned by Genevieve Cieminecki, last year's queen. Chosen as the Queen's attendants were: Midge Brahm, Senior attendant, Kathryn Corby, Junior attendant, Cecile Grate, Sophomore attendant, and Alice Monahan, Freshman attendant.

SENIOR PLAY

You missed the most spectacular act in the show if you were not one of the capacity crowd which filled the big tent on the evenings of March 28th and 29th.

This great attraction was billed as "Arsenic and Old Lace" and the headliners: Janice Smolley as Abby Brewster; Barbara Klatzkie as Martha Brewster; Albert Papa as Dr. Einstein; Douglas Hall as Mortimer Brewster; Phyllis Poetsche as Elaine Harper; Jack Reinhardt as Teddy Brewster, and others kept the audience on the edge of their seats.

Manager of the act, Miss Betty McCarthy and her crew of propmen, make up impressarios and barkers are to be congratulated on the performance.

SENIOR TRIP

The Headliners left the big tent on the 23rd of May for their annual outing to Our National Capitol.

The trip down was interrupted by a short stay at Annapolis, where they saw gobs and gobs of gobs. From there the bus took them to the New Ebbit Hotel.

They checked in and after dinner, took a guided tour of the Capitol and saw some of the highlights of the City. This tour was continued the following day after a night of chaos. When the tour was finished they returned to the Hotel, packed their bags, and prepared to leave for home, completely satisfied with life outside the Circus Top.

Louis Perotta, Frank Wanca, Teresa Liguore, Shirley Wilde, Charles Foster, Ann Greve, Marie Massa.

MITCHELL FIELD

There's nothing like seeing how the other half of the world lives or just what makes things go around.

Our troupers here at Regional have been delighted with the opportunity offered them to visit broadcasting stations, airfields, the stock exchange, museums, laboratories and many other places of business.

Bus transportation is furnished to and from the Big Top.

Grinding, hammering, sawing—working on small pieces of furniture—building props for some of the big acts, particularly the Senior Play, and repairing here and there—our troupers who are interested in this sort of work do a fine job.

ART SERVICE

Make way! The circus is coming to town. The big event is heralded with bright banners and colored billboards. A grand job has been done by the members of the Art Service Club, under the direction of Miss Kay Johnson. The club helps with decorations for all events, large or small, under the Big Top.

Show people are both noted for, and fascinated by all sorts of colorful and garish jewelry. The troupers responsible for the jewelry made under our Big Top belong to the Art Metal Club, working under trainer Fredericks. The pieces they have made are in silver. Besides these, many of them have made tables, lamps, candlesticks and ash trays in copper, brass and iron. The workmanship is quite professional and the objects are most artistic in design.

From Tent 9 comes the busy click clack of knitting needles and if a visitor to our Big Tent should step inside he would find many of our troupers busily engaged in sewing, crocheting, embroidering or weaving belts. Various types of handwork make an interesting as well as a useful hobby, and Trainer Doris Gulliver is a real inspiration.

CAMERA CLUB

Flash! Flash! Click! Click!

Sounds like double talk but it's only the noise made by the boys taking pictures of the big show. In all there are twenty-two photographers in the Photo Tent. Miss Keith is in charge of these "flashes" and shows them fundamentals of printing, developing and mounting pictures. Contests are held each month. The troupers also have purchased equipment which was used to take pictures and silhouettes.

CARD CLUB

The circus people are socially-minded. They realize the importance of social skills under and outside the Big Tent. This group of troupers along with their trainer, Mr. Titley, delved into the intricacies of accurate and thought-provoking card games. Few minutes are now wasted between acts by these performers for they have found a good pastime.

TIPS FOR TEENS CLUB

Knowing well that circus people depend on good grooming, personality and the ability to "put themselves over" in order to make a living, the Tips for Teens group make these a daily routine in the big show.

Miss Anne Romano has the important job of teaching the girls the tricks of good grooming, the most becoming hair styles, new fads and do's and don'ts for dating.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Miss Mac's "behind-the-main-curtain" group, form the skilled artists who keep the big shows operating. Here are found the make-up experts, the property men, the promoters, the stage crew, the decorators, the electricians, and the manager of the side shows and the main attractions. While the glory and fame are showered on the performers, we circus people know the skill, hard work, and patience of this all essential "behind-the-scene" force.

RED CROSS

COOKING CLUB

People find eating a major enjoyment even under the Big Tent. The chief cooks and bottle washers are otherwise known as the Cooking Club. They make the grub to feed the performers and the pink lemonade and cotton candy to feed the spectators. In fact, they're the ones that sell the peanuts to feed the elephants. Under the superb direction of our chief chef, Mrs. Peck, we are all well fed. Look at the fat lady!

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS

Our Jr. Red Cross troupers realize the need for post war work and have done everything within their power to sponsor various activities among the population under the Big Top. Gift boxes for children in war-devastated Europe have been filled; articles for the veterans hospitals have been made; menu covers have been supplied to the Navy to be used at Christmas by the men on board ship and nearly all of our troupers have been persuaded to contribute to the Red Cross.

JOB SURVEY CLUB

Questionnaires have been sent to graduated headliners who were members of our troupe and who left us in 1939 and 1942. The purpose of these questionnaires is to find out what jobs are available to our departing performers. By contacting those with experience, it is possible to find out what opportunities there are for advancement, after the first position has been secured.

Several manufacturing plants have been also contacted in the hope that we may learn more of the actual work a beginner has to do through visiting and being taken through these places.

JOB SURVEY

SEWING CLUB

As soon as the circus arrives at its winter headquarters, Miss Benfer (head of the wardrobe department) and her staff, begin to work on the spangles and frills that so add to the gaiety of circus life. This department made the costumes for our main act, "Arsenic and Old Lace," and help out with a "stitch-in-time" for side show events.

CURRENT EVENTS CLUB

All circus people are mentally alert. They have to be to perform their daring acts of the tight rope, and in the rings. Keeping astride with current problems, outside the circus grounds, is a natural outgrowth of this keenness of purpose. Whether it concerns a labor strike, a political election or a bill passed through Congress, these troupers show vital interest in the results, as do all good troupers and spectators.

Should the voting age be lowered to eighteen? What philosophy influenced the German Reich? What are the chances for the U. N.'s success? What practical value do high school subjects have in the business world? You're interested? Sit in on one of these lively debates with trainer Corning in Tent 206.

Regional's troupers under our "Big Top" are a democratic, sympathetic lot and many of them feel that to truly understand others one must speak their language. As the world grows smaller—distances becoming shorter due to modern transportation—the need for skillful communication increases. Our language clubs correspond with troupers in France and the South American countries and have been most generous in their gifts of boxes containing personal necessities, food, and articles of clothing. $300 has also been sent to aid in the rehabilitation of the Ecole de St. Agnes in Southern France.

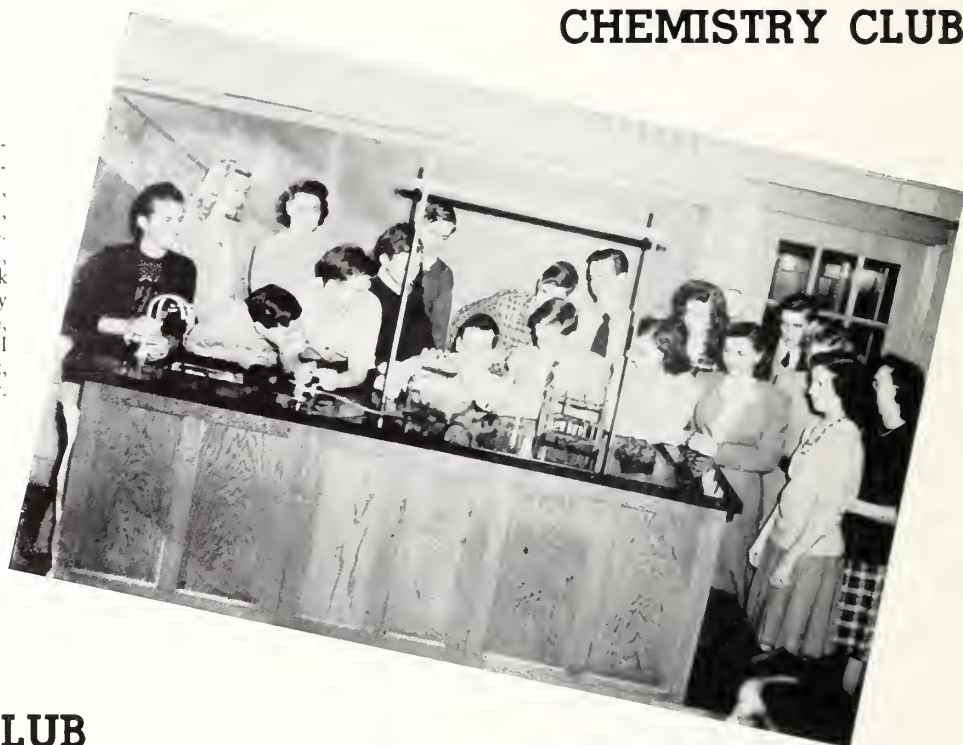

Since so much of the technical terms in medicine, as well as the foundation of modern language, have been derived from the Latin, this club makes a study of roots and medical terms.

Congratulations to them on their progress.

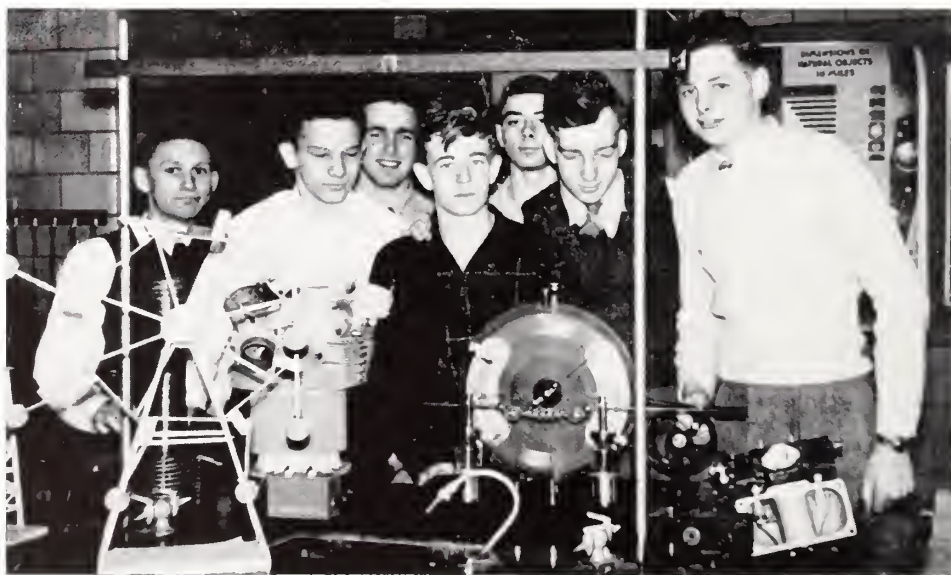

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Some of our troupers find experimenting in the making of acetylene, oxygen, dyes and useful cosmetics a profitable hobby. They have formed a chemistry club, with Mrs. Lehner as instructor and leader. Once a week you can find them in the lab having a good time.

PHYSICS CLUB

Club time is the time and tent 208 is the place to go if you want to experiment with telescopes, radiometers or mercury vapor lamps.

The interested troupers follow up their work directly from physics class and may experiment with any apparatus in the laboratory. Each physical phenomena of every day life may be determined and marveled at.

Perhaps one of the great scientists of 1960 is being born under our Big Top.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Our circus scientists, under the supervision of trainer Miss McKay, have made a decisive mark in the wheels of progress. Dissecting frogs and crayfish, making intricate drawings of animals and plant life, arranging and classifying a biological picture collection, and studying nature magazines are a few of their scientific endeavors.

MATH CLUB

Our circus math experts and trainer Miss Young are carrying on the deep theories of Einstein and his mathematical genius. Numbers are no mystery to these troupers—they've delved into the miracles and profundities of its field. Practical application was made of the material and facts by a clever and originally decorated Christmas Tree with intricate geometric designs.

Ruby, Coach Arthur Boutot, Coach William Brown, Carl Baber, Harold Clifford, Charles Foster, Earl Eriksen, John Hoesly.

Our football troupers gave one of the finest performances of the year.

The team, 17 of whom were headliners, won eight out of nine games, losing only to Rahway in the traditional Thanksgiving Day game. Here is their record:

Regional 30	Summit 7
Regional 26	Cranford 7
Regional 37	Somerville 7
Regional 1	Caldwell 0 (Forfeit)
Regional 7	Roselle 6
Regional 20	Union 18
Regional 53	Bloomfield Tech. 0
Regional 6	Highland Park 0
Regional 7	Rahway 12

John Bunnell, end, won a place on the All-State team and Art Smith won an honorable mention. Frank Moroli was outstanding for his remarkable conversions.

Our team was under the guidance of Coach Bill Brown, who made his comeback after three years and eight months as a physical training director in the Navy.

He was assisted by the former and well liked coach, Art Boutot and his Aide-de-Camp, Ed Ruby. Another new addition to our football staff was Joe Battaglia, wrestling coach, who took over our freshman team this year, and did a superb job. Regional should be mighty proud of her competent and reliable coaches and assistants when they turn out such fine teams as our 46 squad.

Don Belliveau and George Soltes, second fifth scorer respectively, scored with one handers from near the foul line and in the corner when Ray Belliveau was tied up. Both were valuable backboard men. Dick Danneman along with John Bunnell, established himself as a fine defensive man, although both could score high when the Remarkable throughout the School year have been the feats accomplished by the athletic headliners—outstanding was that of Coach Walter Hohn's basketball stars. The team brought to Regional the second Union County Championship in as many years and the fourth in the 10 year existence of the school. It was also the first team in school history to have sole ownership of a "Big Five" championship, although the team of 39-40 shared a trophy with Rahway. They also compiled a seasonal record of 14 wins and 3 losses.

The team got off on the right foot with two wins over Union and Rahway but bowed to Plainfield without the services of Roy Belliveau. They then hit the longest streak of the season by taking eight straight before bowing to Roselle Park. The third and final defeat came at the hands of Linden but that was preceded by three victories. A victory over Union closed the season on the same note it started.

Team captain, John Bunnell, although he was no scoring wizard, was responsible for a large part of the Bulldogs victories. His play-making, ball handling, fast thinking, backboard and defense work, enabled the cagers to win the close ones. Regional had four high scoring men who could be depended upon despite defensive set-ups. Roy Belliveau was the leading scorer, all his points coming from the pivot. Frank Moroli with 125 points ran third in team scoring. His points came on set or push shots from near the corner or on the fast break.

others were not hitting. Art Silva the other regular was benched during the major part of the season because of sickness. Only two men, Roy and Don Belliveau, are returning next year, but those two scored a total of 285 points, a little more than half of the team total.

season and finished second to Roselle Park in the County meets—Howie Young, Frank Rica and Herbert Palmer were the only winners. Regional finished way down the list in the state meets as Howie Young was the only point getter. He finished second in the 154 pound class. The boys who contributed to the undefeated season are John Scarpone, Emory Egler, Steve Wanco, Dan Guerriero, Bob Allcroft, Walt Chorniewy, John Hoesly, Ernie Gon-

The 1946-1947 wrestlers not only joined the long line of out-standing Regional athletic teams, but went to the front with 9 wins and 0 losses record.

The Undefeated Grapplers opened the season with a fairly easy victory over Union and went through the rest of the season that way except for a slight score from Roselle Park. A few of the first string wrestlers had to watch the meet from the bench which meant that Coach Joseph Battaglia had to juggle the line-up. The Bulldogs trailed 19-8 with 4 matches to go, which meant that Regional would have to win all remaining matches. But Coach Battaglia had already anticipated a close match and had Regional's 4 outstanding wrestlers, 3 of them undefeated, in the remaining matches.

Ray Vohden remained undefeated and added 5 points to the Regional score by throwing his opponent. Howie Young and Frank Rica tied the score at 19-19 with victories in the 154 and 165 pound classes respectively. Rica remaining undefeated and Young still only once beaten. Herb Palmer surprised the capacity crowd by taking the heavyweight match to stay in the Undefeated Class. The rest of the season was comparatively easy and the Bulldogs continued piling up high scores. At the end of the season the wrestlers had gathered 289 points—exactly 200 more than the opposition.

After the Union victory the team downed Carteret 45-3, Jefferson 35-10, Rahway 48-0, Roselle Park 22-19, Teaneck 34-8, Somerville 31-3, Blair Academy 24-18 and Washington 23-18. The Grapplers fell way off near the end of the season. The team was led by Coach Battaglia, with players like Ernest Gonczlik, Bernie Buckholtz, Roger Reinville, Ray Vohden, Howard Young, Howard Searles, Frank Rica, Herb Palmer.

Coach Battaglia will have little rebuilding to do next year for he will have 10 experience boys and Joe Wanco, John Phlueger, Tony Davis, Richard DeBerjois, James Ginesi, 3 winners from the Novice Championship team.

TRACK TEAM

Regional's tracksters concluded one of their most successful seasons in 10 years of competition under the direction of the Head Coach Brown, and Coach Boutot. The trackmen defeated Summit, Jefferson, North Plainfield, Rahway and Union.

For Union and Jefferson it was their first set-back in track against a Regional team in nine years of competition.

Defeats were handed down by Linden, Cranford (Group II State Champs) and high-geared Plainfield (Group III State Champs).

Several records were broken. Dick Danneman threw the discus 109 feet. Roy Belliveau increased the javelin mark to 172 feet 3 inches. The leading point getters were Steve Becmer 119 points, Don Simms 96 points, Roy Belliveau 56 points, and Dick Danneman with 55 points.

With only Don Simms, Richard Neilson and Ray Alley going and 10 lettermen coming back, we under the Big Top look with anticipation toward the oncoming '47 track season.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Our Cross Country troupers, without assistance of a coach, turned in one of their most victorious seasons, coming in third in the county, fifth in the State Meet.

The Varsity, which consisted of Cliff Walker, who won tenth place in the County Meet; Red Dahlgren who placed twelfth in the State; Jack Reinhardt, Bob Zeigenfuss, Robert White and Captain Charles Ford, carried out a full schedule competing successfully against many of the local teams: Jefferson, Cranford, Union, Southside, Edison, Dover and Weequahic.

GOLF

Our golf enthusiasts broke about even for their season of the four scheduled matches that were not rained out, they lost two to Union and won two from Cranford. With it all they came in third in the County Tournament.

Next season some more of our fellows expect to enter this field of sport—we hope they will succeed in “bringing home the bacon”.

The games and sports clubs, with Trainers Brown and Boutot directing, are very popular among our male performers. Rules of the various games are studied and through discussion and playing, a keener appreciation of sports is developed.

Just as dependable as day and night came our famous basketball teams. There are four varsity teams this year with the Seniors heading the list. Unbeatable? Why natch! Practice and more practice. That's what makes good teams and Regional has them.

Next year we are looking forward to a senior team that will keep our school at the head of the list.

This year's athletic program was high-lighted by the introduction of track and field. Many of the girl performers took interest in this and it is hoped that it will remain as one of the main sport events in issuing years. Because of the variation in track events, a great number of girls were able to participate in some way. We feel that this has stimulated the enthusiasm among our feminine troupers. Keep it up!

CHEER LEADERS

Morale building and the support of the performers is an important part of life under the big tent. Regional's cheerleaders do an excellent job of enthusing the troupers and training new leaders to replace them when they move on. The candidates for this important work are many because the troupers realize that interest and support are conducive to the production of a better show. Carry on!

G. A. A. OFFICERS

Regional's water nymphs have taken advantage of the opportunity to swim at the Westfield Y. M. C. A. every week through the winter. Not only are many of them fine swimmers and divers, but quite a few can qualify as life guards, having taken the necessary tests. We hope to see more of our troupers interested.

FIELD HOCKEY

As fall rolls around there is a mad dash for shin guards, hockey sticks, and an open field.

Hockey started out on a major scale with Millburn, Hillside and Union falling victims to our trusty females. The varsity team as a whole did a good job, but to top it all off our faithful center-half, Bobby Kees, was chosen captain of the all-state hockey team.

Mrs. Dorothy Brill, our Coach, deserves the maximum of credit for her work and interest in training the team.

First row: Muriel Voltz, Wilma Borter, Gloria Christiansen, Audrey Gramp, Kathryn Reddington, Barbara Kees. Second row: Doris Williams, Phil Colantone, Irmagard Zug, Dot Zygala, Katherine Aldridge, Mary Ann Smar, Dot Constantino, Margaret Engstrom, Doris Ehresman.

MODERN DANCING

Modern dancing takes the ability and imagination of the dancers and is really their rhythmic interpretation of some idea, mood or story. This year the group of troupers who were interested put on a most interesting review in one of our assemblies. Phil Poetsche and Peg Sorge, both well trained in the art of Terpsichore, led the group through a review which included ceremonial, folk, ballet, tap and interpretive dances.

The performers enjoyed the work and the audience was very appreciative. We hope to see much more of this in the future.

DANCING

On with the Dance! Regional's troupers are really getting to be adept — and the freshmen are coming out of their shells. Part of our gym periods are devoted to teaching the "Regional Steps". The results can readily be seen at noon and at our dances. Dancing is really one of the social graces which our sophisticated performers cannot ignore.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hank missed classes, to work on committees,
From September to the end of May,
Now that he's principal of a girl's school
He attends classes all day.

Klatzkie always talked and chewed
But she'll do these no more
For Barb will be struck in later years
With a disease that's called lockjaw.

Tim Sherry has always disliked to write
His homework wasn't done, we fear,
Today Tim spends most of his time
Writing on walls, "Kilroy was here."

Phyllis always liked the stage
The theater was her ambition
Now she yells, "Peanuts, popcorn for sale"
During the intermission.

Douglas' voice was known to all
From earth to the highest staarr,
Asking the old familiar question
"Where did you paarrk your caarr?"

Vivian and Frank were together a lot
No other couple was spoonier,
And now they're married, devoting much time
To a little Viv and a Frank Junior.

Henry Markant would read great books
And A's he'd always get.
But today the books that Henry reads
Are Esquire and Police Gazette.

Bobby Kees found boys attractive
As most girls do, I'm afraid,
But marriage just wasn't created for Bobby
At sixty she's still an old maid.

Paul was as good, as good could be
In his studies he was fine
Now he's changed from books to looks
And is directing girls in a chorus line.

Priscilla Beninati was teachers' curse
She talked 'nough for ten her size
But since she's married to Al Papa
Pris can't get a word in edge-wise.

Ernie Gonzalik was very funny,
Four years he kept us in stitches;
Now Ernie works in a tailor's shop
Sewing buttons on britches.

Betty Dunleavy sang many songs
An operatic career was her wish
You can still hear Betty singing today
On the street corner shouting "Fresh Fish!"

Pflueger had a lot of brains
He amazed us with his knowledge
The only job that he could get,
Was sweeping floors in college.

Peggy danced and pranced around
Now she's stout and muscle bound
Years of practice gone to boot
She can't dance with athlete's foot.

Johnny was good at every sport,
He was captain of every team
Today his squad seeks his advice,
"Daddy, is this right?" they scream.

Cardella was our money-keeper
To him our greenbacks we'd bring
But he did abscond with all of our funds
So today he's a "Guest" at "Hotel" Sing Sing.

Smitty was an athlete
Covered with glory and fame
Today he's hobbling to and fro
With lumbago and a cane.

Winnie was noted for her clothes
Her combinations never were sour.
Now, one can read across her back
"Pillsbury's Sno-Sheen Cake Flour."

Tony Cappazolli was quite a guy
Eating from dawn till day was done;
But since he's left dear Regional High
He's wasted away to half a ton.

This prophecy we now set forth
It isn't the newest of news
Geiger will never have to wear
Adler elevator shoes.

Kathleen Di Fabio was a good stenog
She worked for a man name Prichard
The only position she can get now
Is "Opening the door for Richard."

Famous artists they were to be
Janice S. and Harry K.
Today they still paint, with skillful fingers
Moustaches on posters in the subway.

Steve Becmer was a flash at Track
On the gridiron none was finer
Today he still works with a gridiron
Making hamburgers at Gibson's Diner.

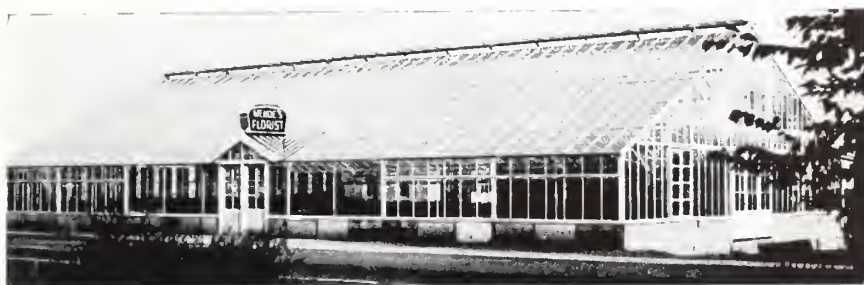

Johnny Mc Gill had a wonderful smile
His teeth were pearly and bright
Now that he's old, they resemble the stars,
For they come out every night.

Who is the
"Voice with a Smile?"

A GIRL very much like you—perhaps she lives on your block or went to your school. She's friendly, wants to get ahead, and takes pride in a job that counts in her community.

She dresses well, too, on a salary that is the highest in telephone history. Yes, she likes it here—the interesting work, the pleasant surroundings, the feeling of working with young people like herself.

You will like it here, too. And your Vocational Guidance Director can tell you how easy it is to become a "Voice with a Smile" after you graduate. Ask her today.
